Proposal Summary [Establishing a Sculpture and Expanded Media Minor]

Description of Action, Including Intended Effect

We have encountered many students taking courses within the School of Art from other study programs who often request a minor course of study in the arts-related field of sculpture and expanded media, something specific (other than the current Fine Arts Minor) that they would have listed on their transcripts in hopes to use later beyond graduation to demonstrate a broader set of skills. Students from many areas within the university would like to better understand sculpture and related techniques in expanded practices related to sculpture in an effort to enhance their perceptions of the world and foster creativity. Study in all disciplines of Studio Art presents opportunities to acquire problem-solving skills, and gain knowledge through active participation and successful object making.

Impact on Other Programs, Course Offerings, Students, Faculty, Staff (e.g., duplication issues)

Increase of minor student enrollment in existing Sculpture and Expanded Media courses will provide opportunities for Studio Art majors to interface with majors outside the School of Art, which leads to a collaborative and diverse classroom experience.

None

Hello Jennifer and Cynthia,

One update to the previous email on art minors being offered at regional campuses. Stark campus would like to offer the Drawing, painting, sculpture and art history minors. Their faculty had considerable buy in to creating the proposals, and also see great opportunities for students to package strong major/minor combinations. Because of their ability to offer more art offerings, they would be the only exception.

Best,
Michael

Hello All,

I'm going to say that these minors will only be offered at the Kent campus since we are the only campus that offers most of the coursework and facilities needed. If regional campuses had the facilities necessary, then we could review a request to offer the minor there.

Best,
Michael

Hi Cindy,
I'm reviewing the minor proposals and I wanted to double check with you to see if the new minors will only be offered at the Kent campus or will they also be offered at any of the regional campuses?

Thanks!

Jennifer
