Leads to endorsement: ☐ Yes ☒ No

Explain the rationale for title change.

This is a request to modify the title of the Global Studies major by changing it back to its original title of International Relations. The rationale for reverting back to International Relations is that the program experienced a sharp and significant decline in enrollments immediately following the title change to Global Studies in Fall 2018. Kent State University began offering the baccalaureate in International Relations in 1983 and, historically, the program experienced healthy enrollments. In the 10 year period between 2008 and 2017, for example, the program consistently enrolled approximately 95 students each Fall term.

During the 2017-2018 academic year, the program underwent a set of curriculum revisions, and the title of the program was changed to Global Studies. This title change went into effect for the first time in Fall 2018, and the program experienced an immediate 25% decline in enrollment from the 10 year average to 71 students. By the following Fall semester, 2019 the overall count of majors had dropped 44% from the 10 year historical average of 95 students to 53 students. A key factor in this enrollment decline is a sharp decrease in the number of students applying for and enrolling in the major. In the 10 year period between Fall 2008 and Fall 2017, the program admitted an average of 37 new freshman each Fall, of which an average of 15 students enrolled, for an average 42% yield (i.e., the percentage of students who are admitted that ultimately enroll). However, in Fall 2018, the semester in which the title change went into effect, our yield dropped significantly to 26.5%, with only 9 of the 34 newly admitted freshman enrolling in the program. It is important to note that, during this admission period, a percentage of the admitted students applied to the program with the understanding that they were applying to an International Relations program because the title change did not go into effect until late Spring. Though not entirely conclusive, one reasonable inference to draw is that, with the title change to Global Studies, it appears that a number of those students decided to enroll elsewhere. This is supported by the fact that, in Fall 2019, the program admitted just 13 new freshman, of whom only 6 enrolled.

Is the Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code changing? If yes, explain why.

The CIP for the International Relations major should be 45.0901 International Relations and Affairs. Definition: A program that focuses on the systematic study of international politics and institutions, and the conduct of diplomacy and foreign policy. Includes instruction in international relations theory, foreign policy analysis, international law and organization, the comparative study of specific countries and regions, and the theory and practice of diplomacy.

The CIP for the Global Studies major is 30.2001 International/Global Studies. Definition: A program that focuses on global and international issues from the perspective of the social sciences, social services, and related fields.

As noted in the Change Request: Name and Curriculum Modification form submitted on March 20, 2018 in which the department requested the title change to Global Studies, "Either CIP would be appropriate." For the reasons noted above, however, the department is requesting that the CIP code be changed back to 45.0901 International Relations and Affairs.

Describe how the title change will affect students in the current program.

There will be no impact on current students in the program, as they will be able to retain their catalog and remain Global Studies majors. However, current students may elect to update their catalog to be declared as International Relations majors should they choose to do so.

Describe any faculty, administrative or support service changes occurring along with the title change.

POL

There will be no faculty, administrative, or support service changes associated with this title change.

Provide evidence that the appropriate accreditation agencies been informed of the proposed change (if applicable).

Not applicable. The program does not have, nor is it seeking, specialized accreditation.

The person listed below verifies that this request has received the necessary institutional approvals and that the above information is truthful and accurate.

Description

The Bachelor of Arts degree in Global Studies offer an interdisciplinary curriculum that allows students to explore how migration, repression, development, marginalization and resistance, among other processes, are affected by transnational forces. Those forces include capital, labor, ideologies and colonial structures. Students investigate how they can have an impact on these and other global issues.

Coursework in the major is offered from across the social sciences and humanities. Courses are clustered into three areas of research and offer students the chance to learn about several regions of the world, including the Caribbean, Africa, Latin America, Europe, Russia, the Middle East, Southeast Asia and East Asia. Students are also exposed to advanced foreign language and encouraged to study abroad.

Fully Offered At:

- Kent Campus

Admission Requirements

The university affirmatively strives to provide educational opportunities and access to students with varied backgrounds, those with special talents and adult students who graduated from high school three or more years ago.

Freshman Students on the Kent Campus: The freshman admission policy on the Kent Campus is selective. Admission decisions are based upon the following: cumulative grade point average, ACT and/or SAT scores, strength of high school college preparatory curriculum and grade trends. The Admissions Office at the Kent Campus may defer the admission of students who do not meet admissions criteria but who demonstrate areas of promise for successful college study. Deferred applicants may begin their college coursework at one of seven regional campuses of Kent State University. For more information on admissions, including additional requirements for some academic programs, visit the admissions website for new freshmen.

Freshman Students on the Regional Campuses: Kent State campuses at Ashtabula, East Liverpool, Geauga, Salem, Stark, Trumbull and Tuscarawas, as well as the Regional Academic Center in Twinsburg, have open enrollment admission for students who hold a high school diploma, GED or equivalent.

English Language Proficiency Requirements for International Students: All international students must provide proof of English language proficiency (unless they meet specific exceptions) by earning a minimum 525 TOEFL score (71 on the Internet-based version), minimum 75 MELAB score, minimum 6.0 IELTS score or minimum 48 PTE score, or by completing the ESL level 112 Intensive Program. For more information on international admission, visit the Office of Global Education's admission website.

Transfer, Transitioning and Former Students: For more information about admission criteria for transfer, transitioning and former students, please visit the admissions website.

Program Learning Outcomes

Graduates of this program will be able to:

1. Demonstrate a basic understanding of global economics, politics, geography, literature and societies.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of at least one foreign language through intermediate II.

University Requirements

All students in a bachelor's degree program at Kent State University must complete the following university requirements for graduation.

NOTE: University requirements may be fulfilled in this program by specific course requirements. Please see Program Requirements for details.

Foreign Language College Requirement

Students pursuing the Bachelor of Arts degree in the College of Arts and Sciences must complete 14-16 credit hours of foreign language.<sup>1</sup> To complete the requirement, students have the equivalent of Elementary I and II in any language, plus one of the following options:

1. Intermediate I and II of the same language <sup>2</sup>
2. Elementary I and II of a second language
3. Any combination of two courses from the following list:

- Intermediate I of the same language
- MCLS 10001 INTRODUCTION TO STRUCTURAL CONCEPTS FOR LANGUAGE STUDENTS
- MCLS 20091 VARIABLE CONTENT SEMINAR IN GLOBAL LITERACY: CASE STUDIES
- MCLS 21417 MULTICULTURALISM IN TODAY'S GERMANY (DIVG)
- MCLS 28404 THE LATIN AMERICAN EXPERIENCE (DIVG)

- <sup>1</sup> All students with prior foreign language experience should take the foreign language placement test to determine the appropriate level at which to start. Some students may begin beyond the Elementary I level and will complete the requirement with fewer credit hours and fewer courses. This may be accomplished by (1) passing a course beyond Elementary I through Intermediate II level; (2) receiving credit through Credit by Exam (CBE), Advanced Placement (AP), International Baccalaureate (IB) or College Level Examination Program (CLEP); or (3) being designated a "native speaker" of a non-English language (consult with the College of Arts and Sciences Advising Office for additional information). When students complete the requirement with fewer than 14 credit hours and four courses, they will complete remaining credit hours with general electives.
- <sup>2</sup> Certain majors, concentrations and minors may require specific languages, limit the languages from which a student may choose or require coursework through Intermediate II. Students who plan to pursue graduate study may need particular language coursework.

- <sup>1</sup> Students must complete a foreign language offered at Kent State (Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Russian, Spanish) at the Intermediate II level (or equivalent). This also will satisfy the college's foreign language requirement (see Foreign Language College Requirement below for additional information). In addition, students must either complete two upper-division courses in the same language or complete a second language at the Elementary II level (or equivalent). With approval of the political science undergraduate coordinator, students may apply courses taken in a foreign language abroad and/or by a proficiency exam (e.g., ACTFL) to satisfy all or part of the language requirement.
- <sup>2</sup> A minimum C grade must be earned to fulfill the writing-intensive requirement.
- <sup>3</sup> Maximum three courses in one subject area from the four elective groups (Global Economics, Global Politics and/or Global Societies electives lists above)
- <sup>4</sup> One additional course taken from the Kent Core Basic Science courses in the following Arts and Sciences disciplines: Anthropology (ANTH), Biological Sciences (BSCI), Chemistry (CHEM), Geography (GEOG), Geology (GEOL) or Physics (PHY). The course may not be from the student's major.
- <sup>5</sup> One additional course taken from the Kent Core Social Sciences courses in the following Arts and Sciences disciplines: Anthropology (ANTH), Geography (GEOG), Criminology and Justice Studies (CRIM), Peace and Conflict Studies (PACS), Political Science (POL), Psychology (PSYC) or Sociology (SOC). The course may not be from the student's major.
- <sup>6</sup> The credit hours depends on if the student completes major requirement ECON 22060 (Social Sciences) or HIST 11051 (Humanities).
