

Gainful Employment Disclosure Kent State University

Program Name: Enology

Program Level: Undergraduate Certificate

This program is designed to be completed in 30

This program will cost $10,612 if the student is considered to be a resident of Ohio for tuition purposes. This program will cost $19,314 if the student is considered to be a non-resident of Ohio for tuition purposes. Students should anticipate additional costs of approximately $1,200 for books, supplies and equipment. There may be additional costs for living expenses and miscellaneous fees. These costs were accurate at the time of posting but may have changed. For the most up-to-date fee information, visit the University Fee Register at <https://www.kent.edu/bursar/university-fee-register>.

Of the students who completed this program within normal time, the typical graduate leaves with the following amount of debt: Fewer than 10 students completed this program within normal time. This number has been withheld to preserve the confidentiality of the students.

Licensure Information:

- 1) Program meets licensure requirements in the following States:
Not Applicable
- 2) Program does not meet licensure requirements in the following States:
Not Applicable
- 3) Program qualifies students to sit for licensure exam in the following States:
Not Applicable
- 4) Program does not qualify students to sit for licensure exam in the following States:
Not Applicable
- 5) The following States do not have licensure requirements for this profession:
Ohio

For more information about graduation rates, loan repayment rates, and post-enrollment earnings about this institution and other postsecondary institutions please click here: <https://collegescorecard.ed.gov/>.

Federal financial aid regulations require that any prospective or current student interested in pursuing or declaring the Enology Certificate be provided with this disclosure information. This information is also available at: <https://www.kent.edu/financialaid/gainful-employment>. Kent State University must receive confirmation that students received this information prior to enrolling in the program.