Notes for Visual Journalism Major:

- Maximum 6 credit hours of general electives at upper-division level. Minimum 5 credit hours of general electives taken in the College of Arts and Sciences, the Department of Economics or in survey and non-skill courses in art, architecture, music or theatre.

- Maximum 44 credit hours of JMC coursework is credited toward a degree.
- Minimum 65 credit hours in liberal studies courses.
- Students must meet the requirements in the catalog to declare a journalism and mass communication major.

Liberal Education Requirements (LER)

Students must complete a minimum 36 credit hours of Liberal Education Requirements. Colleges or degree programs may specify certain courses to fulfill the requirements. Courses in the students' major field will not count toward the completion of any LER. Honors equivalents shall satisfy the LER. None of the courses on the LER list may be taken with a pass/fail grade.

Diversity Course Requirement

Students must complete a two-course diversity requirement, consisting of one with a domestic focus and one with a global focus. One course must be come from the LER and cannot be in the student's major. The second course may be taken as a second LER; or within a major or minor; or as a general elective; or, with dean's approval, by completing one semester of study in another country.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirement

Students must complete a one-course writing-intensive requirement in their major and earn minimum C (2.00) grade.

Upper-Division Requirement

In general, baccalaureate programs require the successful completion of at least 39 upper-division (numbered 30000 to 49999) credit hours of coursework. Programs in the College of Arts and Sciences require a minimum of 42 hours of upper-division coursework.
