3. A minimum C (2.000) grade must be earned to fulfill the writing-intensive requirement.

4. Students are required to plan and execute a senior project in the area of concentration. The project is presented to a committee of at least three faculty members from the School of Art. The committee chair must be from the area of specialization and records the grade for the course. The senior project consists of a written summation, an exhibition in the School of Art and an image documentation of the project.
