1. Students must successfully complete a grammar competency requirement within the first 20 credits of the major and before enrolling in the required writing-intensive course associated with the major. Students will be provided one opportunity to fulfill this major requirement while enrolled in COMM 20000 Foundations of Communication. Students who do not earn a score of 680 or better on this test-out opportunity in COMM 20000 must complete COMM 21000 Grammar Review (1 credit), earning a C or better in the course in order to fulfill this grammar requirement.
2. US 10097 is not required of transfer students with 25 credits or students age 21+ at time of admission.
3. Students selecting JMC 20001 will satisfy 3 of the required 6 credits of Kent Core Social Sciences. JMC 20001 (or JMC 20003), LIS 30010 and VCD 14001 count in the major GPA for the Global Communication concentration.

4. Any COMM course taken is calculated in the major GPA. For the Global Communication concentration the following subjects are calculated in the major GPA: CCI, COMM, IAKM, JMC, LIS and VCD. Number of credits required depends on meeting minimum 120 credit hours and minimum 9-12 credits upper-division hours required depends on meeting minimum 39 upper-division hours.
5. A minimum C (2.000) grade must be earned in one of the designated courses to fulfill the writing-intensive requirement.

The 14 hours must be in one language and it must be a living, spoken language. Students may instead demonstrate an equivalent level of proficiency. Students with foreign language experience should consult with the Department of Modern and Classical Language Studies for appropriate placement. Students are required to begin meeting the foreign language requirement by their third semester of full-time enrollment (that is, no later than upon completing 30 semester hours) and are required to continue to enroll for foreign language courses until the requirement has been completed.

Note: The School of Communication Studies generally will approve dual concentrations for Communication Studies students as long as there are at least 12 hours of coursework in the concentration elective courses exclusively applied to each concentration (resulting in a total of 24 hours of unique concentration electives across the two concentrations). Students must also complete all of the other concentration requirements specific to each concentration, in addition to differentiating their major elective courses across the two concentrations. If one of the dual concentration choices is either the applied or the global communication concentration, students may select courses from across the College of Communication and Information in their elective choices for completing that part of the dual concentration. Any other duplicative course requirements for the two concentrations beyond the requirements specified above may be double counted when completing a dual concentration option.

Students electing a dual concentration must meet with an advisor to plan an individualized plan of study that meets these requirements before the dual concentration option will be approved for that student. Any changes made to the program of study also must be approved by an advisor, or the student may not be allowed to graduate with this option.
